

Texas Wesleyan University
Wesleyan Scholars Honors Program
Departmental Honors Reflective Essay

Each student completing Departmental Honors Program will need to submit a reflective essay.

The essay is meant to be a reflection of your experience in the Departmental Honors Program and should include the following:

- A short description of the project (or classes) you undertook to complete your discipline's requirements for honors.
- An analysis of how completing your honors project (or classes) challenged or changed your views or opinions on the subject of your project.
- An analysis of how the Honors program has helped you in your major studies or in your area of specialization.
- A reflection of what makes the experience of completing honors unique compared to other courses in your academic discipline.

Please submit this essay to the Director of the Wesleyan Scholars Honors Program (honors@txwes.edu).
