BRAG CORNER

Our School of Business has a ton to brag about and we're not shy about it! For starters, we're accredited by AACSB International, the premier accreditor of business schools in the world. It's one of the top things employers are looking for when they see where you earned your business degree. Here are a few of our other favorite bragging points.

- 100 percent of the full-time faculty in the School of Business hold a Ph.D. in their discipline, conduct active research in their field, and many hold additional certifications such as PMP, CPA, FRM, CISA.
- Beta Gamma Sigma, the School of Business's honor student organization, was awarded the title of Highest Honors Chapter, the highest level of recognition a chapter can earn as a part of the Chapter Honor Roll Program.
- Our professors are dedicated to giving our students an inside look to business by connecting them with opportunities to learn directly from businesses. Speakers include esteemed recipients of the Fort Worth Business Hall of Fame, authors, women in leadership, accountants and managers from Fortune 500 companies.
- The award-winning Texas Wesleyan Enactus team, which engages in a social entrepreneurship project and competition, advanced to the USA National Expo for the second year in a row.
- The School of Business was honored to host the Global Entrepreneurship Week's Start Up Crawl, a networking and educational event for budding entrepreneurs – and our students.
- Our 100 percent online MBA program was the only program from Texas named one of the top online supply chain management MBA programs by OnlineMBApage.com.
