About the Conference

Date: March 29, 2014
Time: 9 a.m.—3 p.m.
Where: Texas Wesleyan University
Cost: $5 (includes a morning snack, pizza lunch and a T-shirt)

Who: Young women in 7th and 8th grades. Parents and teachers are invited to the adult workshops and/or to volunteer.

Conference Goals

- To increase your interest in science and mathematics and in the importance of taking these classes in middle school/high school
- To give you information about career opportunities for women in science and math-related careers and to help you find out what you might like
- To introduce you to female role models who are working in science and math-related careers
- To provide the opportunity for you to meet with other young women interested in science and mathematics
